Assets of Community Value: Guidance on completing the nomination form

The Localism Act 2011 created the Community Right to Bid. This gives eligible organisations such as Town and Parish Councils and defined community groups the opportunity to nominate assets (buildings or land) which they believe to be important for their community wellbeing, to be listed by the local authority as an Asset of Community Value.

Further information on the legal basis of the Community Right to Bid and Assets of Community Value can be found at:

- The Localism Act, Part 5, Chapter 3:
