

Guidance for Applicants

If you or another person included in your application has a health problem which is made worse by your living conditions, or your home is unsuitable for medical reasons, then you should complete this form. If you have any doubts about whether you might qualify for a medical priority, you are advised to complete this form.

This form should be returned to the address on page 3. It will then be submitted to our Medical Adviser for a decision as to what level (if any) of medical priority should be given to your application. You will be advised if there is any change in the points awarded to your application, Medical priority will not normally be given on grounds of pregnancy, relationship / marriage breakdown or other emotional problems, or defect in the condition of your home.

Your doctor or hospital consultant may be asked to give further information but you do not need to ask your doctor to provide a letter.

The council will not be responsible for any fee your doctor or consultant may charge for providing information.
